

LOCATION OF CONSERVATION COLLIER PRESERVES
FLUM "Area" of the County	Number of preserves	Acreage
Urban & Incorporated Areas	9	618
North Golden Gate Estates	5	496
Rural Fringe Mixed Use District	3	157
Rural Lands Stewardship Area	3	2,693
Conservation Designation	1	381
TOTAL	21	4345

The majority of Conservation Collier Preserves are located where people live in the Urban area, Estates, RFMUD, and Immokalee; the two exceptions to this are McIlvane Marsh and Camp Keais Strand.

URBAN AREA

- Alligator Flag
- Cocohatchee Creek
- Freedom Park
- Gordon River Greenway
- Otter Mound
- Pepper Ranch (part of the Preserve is within the Immokalee Urban area)
- Railhead Scrub – Access planned after Veterans Memorial extension complete
- SD Corp (Acquired August 2020 – Access planned for 2021/22)
- Shell Island - Resource protection area viewable from Briggs Boardwalk, Shell Island Rd)
- Wet Woods - Resource protection area

NORTH GOLDEN GATE ESTATES (area north of I-75)

- Dr. Robert H. Gore III
- Logan Woods
- Panther Walk
- Red Maples Swamp – Multi-parcel project; trails planned after more contiguous parcels acquired
- Winchester Head - Multi-parcel project; trails planned after more contiguous parcels acquired

RURAL FRINGE MIXED USE DISTRICT (RFMUD)

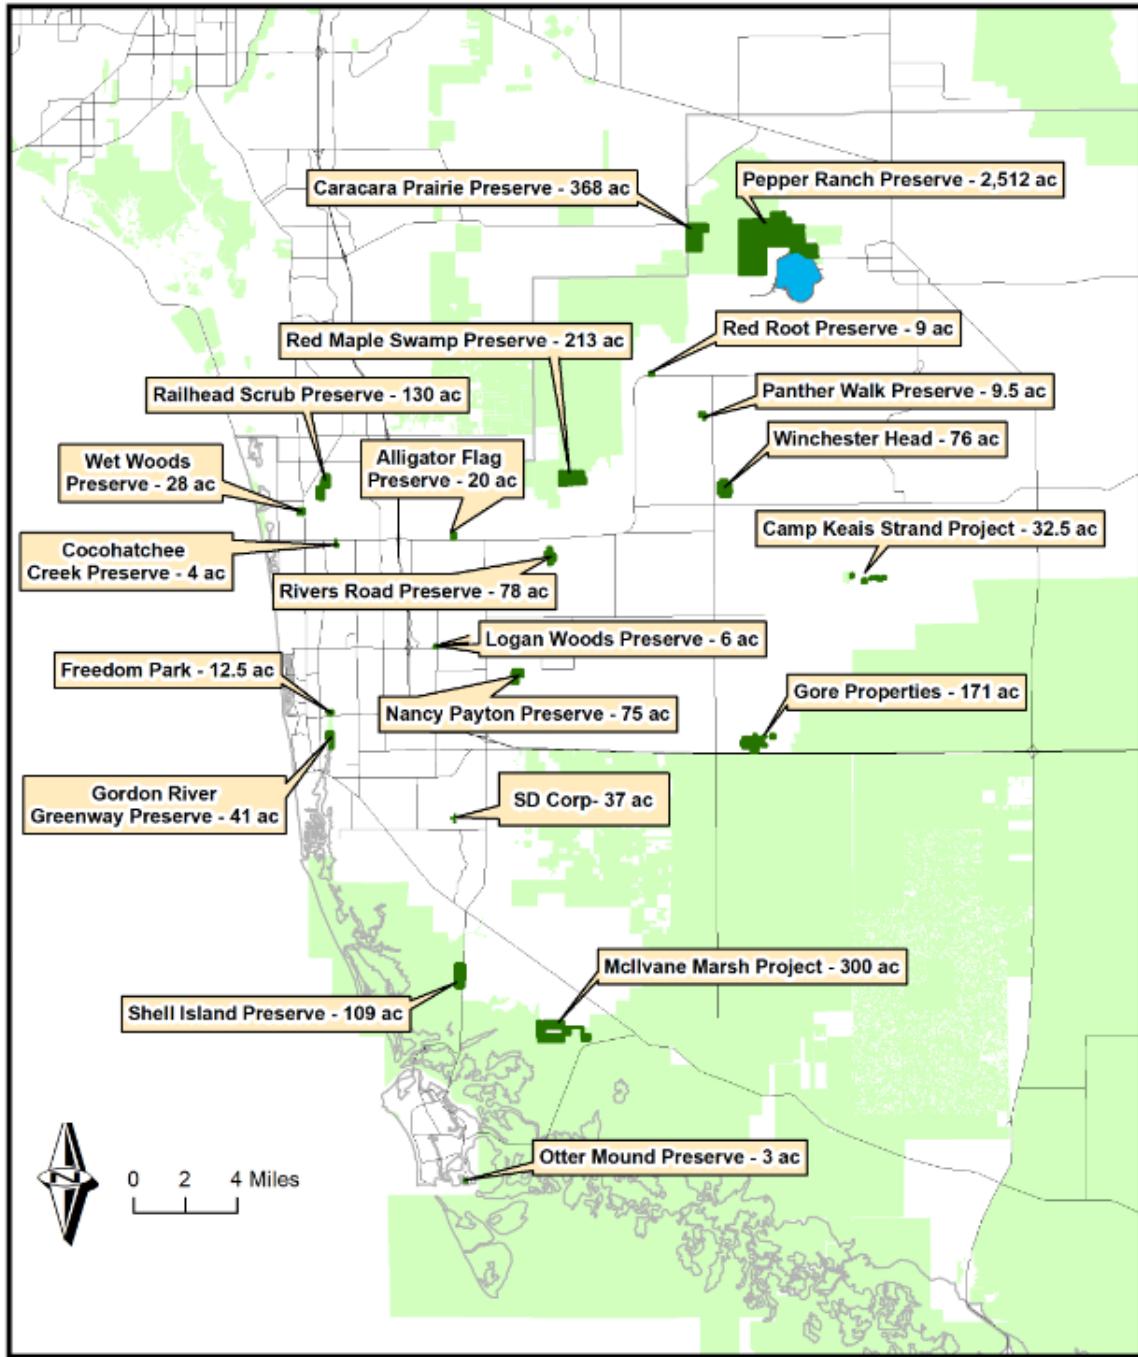

- Nancy Payton
- Redroot
- Rivers Road

RURAL LANDS STEWARDSHIP AREA (RLSA)

The following Conservation Collier preserves currently exist within the RLSA:

- Camp Keais Strand
- Caracara Prairie

Collier County Conservation Collier Program Lands 2020

Legend

- Conservation Collier Lands
- Other Agency Conservation Lands